Well, we're finally here. The end of the road, the Big Game, the Super Bowl. I think it's XVIV, or something. It's been a wild ride, and I think quite possibly the first year that I haven't finished in last

Much of the credit has to go to Scoop. Maybe she gets on our computers at night when we've all gone home for the day and researches stats or something. Or maybe it comes down to the fact that we rooted for a lot of cat and bird teams and one fish team regularly throughout the season.

At any rate, I'm looking forward to teaming up with Scoop again next season, though I don't look forward to the sheer amount of money I'm going to have to spend in cat treats.

Record: 837-494-5 Season: 167-116-1

The Super Bowl choice is Scoop's, and she hasn't let me live down vetoing the Bengals for the Titans, so, Scoop made it clear if I don't use her choice, she won't use the litter box in my office next grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
