Abby Burke

The All-Express girls basketball team is made up of girls from East Mills, Essex, Griswold, Red Oak, Southwest Valley, and Stanton. This year we have six girls on first team and five girls on second team with one honorable mention from each of the six schools.

This year's captain is Stanton senior Abby Burke. Burke only played five full games her senior year before being sidelined with a knee injury in the first quarter of the sixth game of the season. She had taken over the most career made treys in Stanton history the previous season, and received conference accolades for her basketball skills. It would have been easy to stay away from the court and savor a pity party for the rest of the season. But Abby could not do that because she is a "we over me" teammate.

Burke went to practices and games and continued to be a senior leader for the 22-3 Viqueens. This record caps a four-year run for the senior class, which finished 87-9 during its prep career. Burke upped the most career made treys record to 158 and finished with 654 total points.

In the first five games played this season, she led Stanton scoring twice: on Dec. 5 against Coon Rapids Bayard (18 pts) and Dec. 13 against Essex (19 pts). Burke had big goals for herself and the team this final year, and being sidelined was not on the list. Instead of bringing the rest of the team down, she encouraged, motivated, and remained positive sitting behind the team with the managers. The character displayed throughout the season, knowing her passion for the game, is the reason she is named All-Express captain.

First team

First team selections include two forwards, one point guard, two guards.

Emily Williams, a senior at East Mills, finished the season with a 29.37% per game efficiency. This forward is the highest efficiency per game for all the girls in the six schools we cover.

Williams dominated the court every game, averaging 16.2 points per game and 9.9 rebounds per game. She had 84 assists, 95 steals, and 33 blocks throughout the season. She is the leading scorer for East Mills with 1,287 total points in her career. Williams led the Corner Conference in most points, rebounds, and steals.

Jenna Stephens, Stanton senior, is the next player to break above 20% per game efficiency, finishing with 24.28%. She holds the best single-game scoring record for Stanton with 41 points from last season's OT win over Lenox and finished her prep career with 1,449 points, 350 from this season alone. This season, the forward drained 37 treys, 117 in front of the arc, and 79 free throws. She led the Queens on the boards with 188 rebounds, while handing out 70 assists, and combining for 69 steals and 34 blocks on defense.

Stanton senior Marleigh Johnson is one of the best point guards in Class 1A. She joined the 1,000 point club this season, finishing with 1,082 career points, 269 from this season. Ending the season with 131 assists, she is the school record-holder with 401 assists in her prep career. Johnson finished with 39 steals, 19 blocks, and 144 rebounds on the season, totaling 20.79% efficiency per game. She led the Corner Conference in assists and field goal efficiency at 57.8%.

Maggie Haer, Southwest Valley senior guard, finished the season with 237 points, 47 assists, 80 steals, nine blocks, and 86 rebounds. She led the Timberwolves in scoring, blocks, assists, and rebounds and finished fifth in the Pride of Iowa Conference in steals.

Miah Urban, East Mills senior guard finished with 194 points and averaged over five rebounds per game. She led the Wolverines with 90 assists.

Second team

Second team crieria included a per game efficiency between 10% and 15% and at least 20 games played.

Hannah Olson, Stanton sophomore, came onto the scene due to Burke's injury. She stepped up and put up good numbers, finishing the season with 242 points, 128 rebounds, 22 assists, 75 steals, and four blocks.

Aspen Crouse, East Mills senior, finished the season with 239 points and 134 rebounds.

Brianne Johnson, Essex senior, had 174 points and 150 rebounds.

Leah Sandin, Stanton junior had 292 points and 80 steals.

Mackenzie Fast, Southwest Valley freshman, had a stellar debut season, finishing with 166 points and 105 rebounds.

Essex: Brooke Burns, junior.

Griswold: Abby Gohlinghorst,

Griswold sophomore.

Red Oak: Lainey DeVries, senior.

Southwest Valley: Ada Fast, freshman.

Stanton: Brooklyn Silva, senior.

Essex standout signs LOI

Essex standout senior Olivia Baker signed her letter of intent to Buena Vista on Wednesday, Feb. 22. Baker will continue her cheerleading career and throwing shot put at the next level.

"I visited my sister Kelli at BV when she was cheering," Baker said.

"When I went for a college visit and realized how small the classes were, I was happy because I didn't want to be just a number.

"The cheer coach reached out to me and watched me at the state competition. And they have added stunts this year. The track thing is newer. The weights coach reached out and thought I could be a good fit for the team."

Baker said she has cheered all four years of high school, but just the past two years the squad has competed more and attended camps, which made her realize she wanted to continue to cheer.

Olivia is pictured at right in the middle signing her letter. Her parents, Meredith and Don, watch with pride.

East Mills BBB finishes season in district final

Charm Carpenter
The Red Oak Express

The Bedford Bulldogs shut down East Mills’ top two scorers in the first half, holding Braden West scoreless and Mason Crouse to just four points on their way to a 44-35 district final win over the Wolverines.

East Mills held an 11-7 lead after one quarter of play before Bedford settled down and took its first lead with 5:33 remaining in the first half. The Bulldogs took a two-point lead into the break, 23-21.

East Mills’ Peyton Embree came out in the third quarter and hit an inside shot to knot the score, and the Wolverines used a 9-5 run in the third to regain the lead, 30-28 with eight minutes of play remaining.

The Bulldogs switched the defense from a triangle-and-two to a line-and-three to keep the Wolverine’s top shooters from gaining momentum, and were successful, outscoring East Mills 16-5 in the final eight minutes of play.

The Wolverines see their season end 21-4 with six seniors exiting the program: Mason Crouse, Davis McGrew, Peyton Embree, Jerett Jentzsch, Max Smiley, and Braden West.

EM: Davis McGrew three points, one rebound, one assist; Mason Crouse 10 points, nine rebounds, one assist, one steal; Jackson Embree eight points, seven rebounds, one steal; Braden West five points, six rebounds; Peyton Embree three points, five rebounds; Zach Thornburg two points, one rebound, one assist; Tyler Williams three rebounds, one assist, one steal; Jerett Jentzsch two points, four rebounds, three blocks; Lincoln Palmer two points, two rebounds, one assist; Layne Mastin one steal.

Red Oak sixth grader Sawyer Perdue won the AAU kids state wrestling tournament 160 bracket on Saturday, Feb. 25, in Des Moines.

Perdue went 4-0 for first place, pinning his way through the bracket. He won by fall :47; 1:20; :11; :44.

Southwest Valley’s Taelyn Gaunt finished runner up in the A110 bracket on Sunday, Feb. 26 at the AAU girls state tournament.

Stephens, Williams honored by IGCA

Stanton’s Hart selected to All-Iowa Dance Team

Special to The Express

Forty teams qualified for the state basketball tournament after days, weeks, and months of practice. Another championship caliber team that will show its talent Friday and Saturday, March 3 and 4, has practiced for just a few hours. That team is the All-Iowa Honor Dance Team, which has become a tradition at the girls state basketball tournament. After just hours of practice together, the students annually put on a show that is nationally recognized as one of the finest of its kind.

All dance teams represented are members of the Iowa State Dance Team Association, and the dancers were chosen based on ability, attitude, dedication, and leadership qualities. Over 500 dancers auditioned last fall at Newton Community Schools. Grand View University serves as the host for the Thursday and Friday rehearsals.

The pregame performance, choreographed by Rachael Wurr of Pella, will include 50 dancers performing a prop routine ending in a patriotic salute.

The “Greatest Show in Iowa” will take place during the 4A championship game Saturday, March 4. The halftime group includes 238 dancers representing 98 Iowa high schools.

Kyla Hart, a sophomore at Stanton High School, was selected to this team.

“We are so proud of her accomplishment and can’t wait to see her perform,” Stanton dance club coach Jana McCunn said.

Sit back and enjoy some music from the ’90’s - Let’s Get Ready to Rumble.

The IGHSAU salutes, for the 42nd consecutive year, Kathy Enyart and the All-Iowa Honor Dance Team.

Successful day for ROCHS speech team

On Saturday, the Red Oak Community High School individual speech team competed at districts at Shenandoah High School. Thirteen students from grades 9-12 attended the event, and each student competed in either one or two events. Many of the students were also in the musical that took place over the weekend, which made for a jam-packed day, but they handled it with the grace and energy of professionals. Receiving a I rating and qualifying for State:

- Grace Goldapp, musical theatre
- Tessa Rolenc, acting
- Lauren Dean, expository
- Stef Medina, storytelling
- Tony Filpi, radio news

- Ella Johnson, radio news
- Josie Rengstorf, expository
- Tessa Rolenc, prose
- Ella Johnson, after dinner
- Griffin Eubank, improv
- Madilynn Parker, poetry
- Michelle Grass, literary program

Receiving a II rating and performing well:

- Madilynn Parker, musical theatre
- Mariella Richards Hernandez, poetry
- Griffin Eubank, expository
- Bennett Stickland, prose
- Michelle Grass, expository
- Mariella Richards Hernandez, storytelling
- Cash Berendes, musical theatre
