Southwest Valley, Essex-Stanton, and CAM golfers took to the Anita course on Thursday, March 30, playing in winds that gusted to 25 miles per hour.

“Due to injury, scheduling conflicts, and more, we were not able to field a full boys team,” Southwest Valley head golf coach Cindy Drake said. “That did not stop our players from playing hard in challenging conditions. Spring is a time when most golf swings show a bit of rust. It’s to be expected at this time of year. That did not stop our players, either. With very few outdoor practice sessions under their belts, they went out and played quite well.”

CAM boys came away with the team win, finishing with 171 to Essex-Stanton’s 201.

On the par 35 course, CAM’s Chase Jahde earned medalist honors, carding a 37. Teammate Seth Hensley finished with runner-up honors with a 39.

Ethan Bruce represented the SWV boys, and carded a 49.

“Ethan is a dual athlete this year, splitting his practice time between track and golf,” Drake said. “Even so, his swing has very little winter rust on it.”

Kywin Tibben and Jacob Martin led the Essex-Stanton team with 48 each. Other Essex-Stanton scores: Derek Bartlett 52; Kaden Buick 53; Bradley Franks 55; Jacob Robinette 61.

On the girls side, Southwest Valley was the only school to field a girls team, winning with a 249.

Essex-Stanton’s Jenna Stephens earned medalist honors with 54, and Southwest Valley’s Maggie Haer earned runner-up honors with 57.

Other SWV scores: Miaya Fourez 58; Sidney Crill 60; Kensie Fast 74.

Leah Sandin carded 59 as the only other Essex-Stanton golfer in the triangular meet.

“Crill and Fast are freshmen and this was their first full round of golf,” Drake said. “We had excellent play from both of them.”

Southwest Valley competes on Thursday, April 6, as they host Bedford and Fremont-Mills beginning at 4 p.m. The Timberwolves travel to Red Oak on Monday, April 10 to compete against the Tigers.

“The girls were ready to get out and compete after a month of practice, so it was nice to finally have a track meet,” Hults said. “The weather was definitely cold, which is to be expected in late March, but I felt the girls all did a great job of staying motivated and trying their best in the conditions. We have a lot of new girls on our team this year, so there are some big question marks about where they will fit in the best to help the team overall. He looks to have a very good season and this start really will help with his confidence.”

YMCA hosts youth soccer jamboree

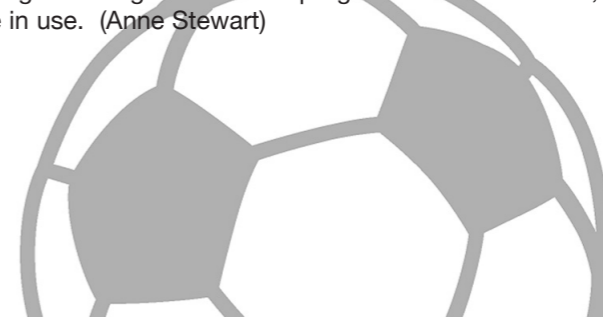

Special to the Express

On Saturday, March 25, the Montgomery County Family YMCA hosted a multi-team soccer youth jamboree at Kelly Park. More than 200 kids participated with teams from Essex, Clarinda, and Shenandoah along with Red Oak (YMCA). Games were played in U8, U10, U12, and intrasquad scrimmages for the combined Essex/Red Oak U15 team.

It is thought this is the first youth soccer meet with multiple teams to occur in Red Oak. The MCFYMA teams are comprised of kids from Red Oak, Stanton, Essex, East Mills, Southwest Valley and Clarinda. The YMCA/Red Oak teams will be competing in the newly formed Southwest Iowa Soccer League (SWISL) for the spring 2023 season. SWISL teams include Atlantic, Avoca, Essex, Griswold, Harlan, Red Oak, and Riverside.

Members of the Red Oak community braved cold winds to participate in the Red Oak Rotary Club's annual Easter egg hunt at Fountain Square Park. The club accepts donations for the eggs, as well as for the items that they use to fill the eggs for the kids. Around 2,000 eggs are filled for the event every year, and additional candy was also laid out amongst the eggs to be picked up by the kids. The egg stuffing was primarily handled by residents of Nishna Productions, and they were also assisted by the many businesses that donated the eggs. While a lot of effort went into the event, members of the club said seeing the happy children made all the work worthwhile.

While not hitting on the sale level as college basketball, the Iowa Department of Natural Resource's March Madness spoof, "Park Madness," made a big impact in Montgomery County. The contest was the first of its kind hosted by the Iowa DNR. With over 54% of the votes, Viking Lake was named as the champion state park in the state of Iowa over runner-up Lacey-Keosauqua in Southeast Iowa. The park is usually full from Memorial Day through August, and Viking Lake park ranger Todd Carick hoped that the win in the contest would continue to increase the park's popularity.

Griswold golf ready to tee off

Charm Carpenter
The Red Oak Express

The Griswold golf teams bring back both girls and two of the top three boy golfers from last season. The girls did not field a team last year, and will not again this season. However, Linsey Keiser and Joey Reynolds both carded a 105 in the Corner Conference tournament last year, earning medalist honors with hopes of advancing even further this season.

On the boys side, Kamron Brownlee finished with an 82 at the sectional tournament last year, and carded a 95 at districts, ending his season to lead the Tigers. Hogan Hook returns with varsity experience as well, and both hope to continue to lower their scores. The Tigers opened the 2023 season on Tuesday, April 3, in a triangular in Greenfield with Nodaway Valley and Essex-Stanton. The teams tee off at 4 p.m. Look for the results in next week's edition.
