ALL-EXPRESS

Charm Carpenter
 The Red Oak Express

The softball season is over and it is time for the All-Express softball teams to be released. This is a team made up from the softball players in the six schools we cover: East Mills, Essex, Griswold, Red Oak, Southwest Valley, and Stanton.

The Griswold softball team found the most success this season, sporting a 20-6 record and falling in the Class 1A region 3 semifinal two weeks ago.

Only four senior girls played this season, making the future look promising for all six teams as the rosters were full of eighth graders and freshmen gaining valuable varsity experience.

Last year, you may recall, the committee made a rookie roster of just eighth graders and freshmen, due to the amount of young girls playing and the level at which they played. I predicted that half of the rookies would be on the teams this season; six of the 10 are.

First team

Returning for the second year as first team pitcher is Griswold sophomore Karly Millikan, who finished 12-3 from the circle. She pitched 92 innings this season, facing 346 opponents and striking out 114 of them. She gave up a mere 57 hits, 20 earned runs, and walked 20 batters. She finished with an ERA of 1.52 and a WHIP of .084 (14th in Class 1A, first in Corner Conference).

Millikan was a force at the plate as well, beginning in the five-spot and moving to third hitter mid June. She led the Tigers with a batting average of .421 (second in the conference) and a slugging percentage of .579 on 32 hits, including nine doubles and one homerun.

McKenna Wiechman, Griswold junior makes back-to-back appearances as first team catcher. Wiechman led the Corner Conference with 203 putouts in 215 total chances behind the plate. She threw out six would-be base stealers, and was credited with just one error all season long.

Wiechman finished with 19 hits, two of those doubles, and a batting average of .259.

Infield: Makenna Askeland, Griswold junior; Evy Marlin, Southwest Valley freshman; Kiley Barrett, East Mills sophomore; Ada Lund, Southwest Valley eighth-grader.

Askeland is the sole repeat from last year's first team infield. She is Griswold's first baseman and finished the season with a mere seven errors in the 26 games played. Her batting line was .342/.455/.479 landing her seventh in slugging percentage in the Corner Conference with 25 hits including seven doubles and one home run.

Evy Marlin made the rookie roster last year and finished with 35 hits, including 10 doubles and one triple. Her batting line was .398/.432/.534 finishing 25th in an absolutely loaded Pride of Iowa Conference. She had 19 stolen bases in 22 tries.

Barrett was the most vocal of any player on any team this season. She knows the strategy of softball and whether she played first base or third base, she was a huge asset for the Wolverine defense. Rarely did a ball get behind her as she jumped, dove, or stretched to make the stop. She finished with 17 hits including two doubles in her 19 games played.

Lund is just an eighth grader, but plays with the skill of an experienced player. She had 31 hits in her debut season, three of those doubles and four of those triples. Her batting line was .32/.389/.477, and she had 19 stolen bases.

Pennock had four doubles in her 20 hits and stole 15 bases.

Johnston posted 24 hits including four doubles, one triple, and one home run, and stole 17 bases in as many tries.

Lindsay led the Tigers with a batting line of .393/.414/.482 and collected 22 hits that included two doubles and one home run.

Utility: Kyla Hart, Stanton freshman.

Hart knows softball. She played shortstop and centerfield for the Viqueens and pitched when needed. She finished with 23 hits, scoring 21 times, and had two doubles, four triples, and one home run for a batting line of .359/.488/.562, tying for second in the conference in slugging percentage.

Second team

Pitcher: Ryanne Mullen, Southwest Valley junior.
