Tiger football earns third straight shutout

Charm Carpenter
The Red Oak Express

The Red Oak Tigers made a statement on Friday, Sept. 9, as they shut out their third opponent of the season in a 36-0 shutout over Nodaway Valley to move to 3-0 on the season.

"It is a team effort on defense," Red Oak head football coach Michael Nordeen said. "We are able to rotate players to different spots, and we don't miss a beat. We give the guys a lot of freedom to adjust on the fly, and it allows them to play more relaxed. It's fun to work with these guys during the week; the ideas they come up with and adjustments they make during scout, shows the time they are putting into mastering their craft.

"We have also had guys step up in back-up roles that have been huge. Baz Clear, Cyrus Mensen, and Andrew Johnson have stepped up and helped the defense. Having guys like this allows us to give guys breaks and have more gas in our tank when the third and fourth quarter come around."

The game started slowly, and the first quarter was filled with miscues and penalties from both sides. Red Oak's Braden Woods deflected a Wolverine pass on third down to force a punt. The Tigers had a short field and scored on a 29-yard pass from Chase Roeder to Dawson Bond to get the scoring started. Neither team scored in the second quarter and the Tigers took a 7-0 lead into the halftime.

Third quarter scoring included two rushing TDs by Riley Fouts and both PATs, kicked by Dawson Bond, were good. The Tigers entered the fourth quarter leading 21-0.

Woods scored on a 35-yard pass by Roeder to put the game out of reach midway

Braden Woods, Red Oak senior, finished with 59 receiving yards, five solo tackles, one sack, one blocked punt, and one deflected pass. (Charm Carpenter/The Red Oak Express) through the final quarter, but the final two plays added the final eight points in a crazy twist.

Tiger defense earned a safety as the clock ticked down and Landon Couse ran the Wolverine kickoff all the way back to add the final six points.

"The biggest improvement has been the mindset of family," Nordeen said. "They know what they want to accomplish this season and to create the standard for the Red Oak football program in the future. The younger guys are pushing the varsity guys all week long, which allows the staff to feel comfortable rotating more players on offense, defense, and special teams.

"We have made some adjustments to our offense, which has allowed us to spread the ball

Nick's Picks VS. Charm's Credence

Record: 753-593-6
Season: 6-8-1

Nick says:
Well, here we are at week two. I didn't bother to ask about week one, I'm sure it was abysmal. Still in food and treat negotiations with Scoop for assistance on the weekly picks. Give her an inch and she'll take a mile. Let's rip off the bandaid and get it over with.

L.A. Chargers vs. Kansas City: I know the Chargers lost last week so I'll take the Chiefs here.

NY Jets/Cleveland: They both stink, but the Browns stink less.

Washington/Detroit: Of course the Lions.

Tampa Bay/New Orleans: Saints I guess?

Carolina/N.Y. Giants: Have to be the Panthers.

New England/Pittsburgh: Patriots, probably.

Indianapolis/Jacksonville: Jaguars, naturally.

Miami/Baltimore: Dolphins, perhaps?

Atlanta/L.A. Rams: Rams, yeah.

Seattle/San Francisco: Seahawks.

Cincinnati/Dallas: Who else but the Bengals?

Houston/Denver: I don't know. Broncos?

Arizona/Las Vegas: Cardinals.

Chicago/Green Bay: This one's for you, ma! Da Bears.

Tennessee/Buffalo: Go Titans.

Minnesota/Philadelphia: Eagles.

Charm says:
I am not impressed with week one results. My boys, the hubs' team, and two of my sons' teams all looked like trash! (as did work sis' team!) But Pdawg's Fins pulled out a wonderful win so I guess as long as the boss man is happy that is all that really matters.

Record: 846-500-6
Season: 8-6-1

As far as the contest at work goes, Nanny, Shellie, Pdawg, and I tied for first with eight games correct. I guess a win is a win!

Predictions in bold:

Chargers @ KC
NY Jets @ Cleveland
Washington @ Detroit
Tampa Bay @ New Orleans
Carolina @ NY Giants
New England @ Pittsburgh
Indy @ Jacksonville
Miami @ Baltimore
Atlanta @ Rams
Seattle @ SF
Cincinnati @ Dallas
Houston @ Denver
Arizona @ Las Vegas
Chicago @ Green Bay
Tennessee @ Buffalo
Minnesota @ Philly

Week one takes: The Rams have got to get the offensive line stronger or we will suffer all season long. Overrated Stafford threw three interceptions and was sacked seven times!

We can't rely on just Kupp to do his magic. He had an amazing catch in the end zone! It was so pretty!!

But I will give credit where credit is due: the Bills look elite this season! (I am hoping they are so good they just made us look THAT bad!)

Dak Prescott's injured thumb is going to make Dallas' season extremely long.

And Nick, the Chargers did not lose! The Bolts looked great with Justin Herbert having a super game. I will continue to call the Bolts' QB Kenny. If you know, you know.

Maybe the Rams will show up this week. Horns up, Ramily!!

Viqueens down Bulldogs in three sets

The Red Oak Express

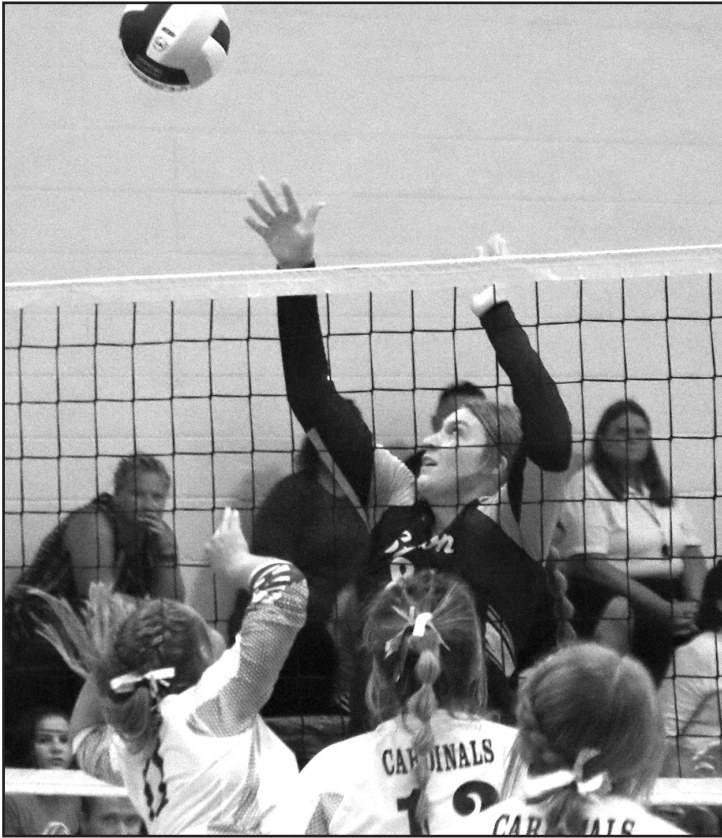

The Stanton Viqueens defeated Bedford 3-0 on Thursday, Sept. 8, climbing to 10-4 on the season. The set scores were 25-6, 25-14, and 25-16.

“Overall we had a great night of strong offense, purposeful serving, and superb passing,” Stanton head volleyball coach Jody Druivenga said. “Jenna Stephens rolled on the service line in set one and served 11 tough serves that really gave the team some strong momentum going into later sets.”

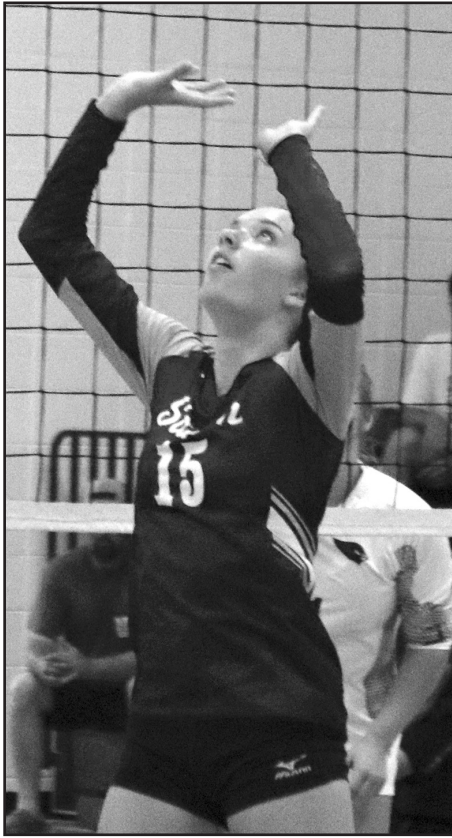

Stanton stats: Brooklyn Silva four assists, three kills, one ace; Hart 11 assists, three digs; Leah Sandin 11 digs; Abby Burke four kills, one dig, one ace; Lauren Johnson four kills, 10 digs, one ace; April Vanderholm three assists, two digs; Marleigh Johnson five kills, 10 digs; Stephens six kills, three digs; McDonald five assists, one dig.

“Kyla [Hart] and Elly [McDonald] did a fine job of moving the ball around to our different attackers and it was fun to see so many girls involved in our offense the entire match. Our back row gals continue to improve every match and their passing gives our setters multiple options, which is huge. Bedford is a very scrappy team who are in continual pursuit of every ball, so we had some great rallies of strong play on both sides of the court.”

The Viqueens are in action at the East Union triangle with Southwest Valley on Monday, Sept. 19, beginning at 5:30 p.m.

Timberwolves FB falls on homecoming

Charm Carpenter
The Red Oak Express

The Southwest Valley football team fell to AHSTW (3-0) 28-0 on Friday, Sept. 9, dropping their first game of the season on homecoming.

The Vikings made big stops on defense, limiting the Timberwolves to 23 yards in the air and 229 on the ground.

The Timberwolves were without their starting QB the entire second half of the game, and struggled to get the momentum to swing their way.

Wyatt Mendenhall and Isaac Currin stepped into the QB role after Timmerman’s injury. Mendenhall completed one of three passes for 12 yards;

Currin one of one pass for seven yards; and Timmerman one of one pass for four yards.

SWV stats: Rushing: Mendenhall 4/10 yards; Timmerman 7/30 yards; Bradlee Grant 13/52 yards; Currin 29/123 yards; Ely Rodriguez 2/14 yards. Receiving: Grant 2/11 yards; Marshall Knapp 1/12 yards. Tackles: Colton Pegg .5; Roman Keefe one; Timmerman 2.5; Devin Greenwalt one; Currin .5; Rodriguez 2.5; Robbie Barnes two; Colin Jacobs five; Dillon Inman 1.5; Theron Mullen 2.5; Tate Haffner .5; Knapp 3.5.

Currin added three kick returns for 54 yards and two punts for 25 yards.

Southwest Valley (2-1) hopes to bounce back on Friday, Sept. 16, as they travel to St. Albert (1-2) in district action beginning at 7 p.m.

Vikings sail to victory for homecoming win

The Red Oak Express

The Stanton-Essex football team climbed to 2-1 with a 34-24 win over East Union (2-1) after a sluggish start.

Stanton-Essex grabbed an early touchdown, but could not add the extra points, and East Union went ahead 10-6 by the end of the first quarter on a TD, two-point conversion, and safety.

The Eagles quickly added another TD and two-points, but the Vikings fought back and closed the gap 18-12 midway through the second quarter. The Vikings took over on downs and were able to move ahead 20-18 before half time.

The Vikings pulled away 26-18 early in the third quarter and stood tall on defense during the quarter for the score to remain at the end of the quarter. But the Eagles used four plays to add a TD run to start the final quarter. The Vikings defense stopped the extra points to keep the lead 26-24. The final quarter found more flags flying as both teams fought for the win, but an interception returned for a TD by Stanton’s Gavin Ford with just under seven minutes left on the clock, sealed the Viking win.

“The offense continued to grow by putting together drives with plays with great blocks, tough catches, and exciting yards after the catch,” Stanton-Essex head football coach Jeff Grebin said. “The defense pursued relentlessly as a unit. They played well and made some great tackles for loss. The teams is coming together and beginning to play for each other. As a spectator, it was just the right blend of offense and defense that made it a great game to watch. I’m very proud of the way they played.”

Nolan Grebin ran the offense, completing 16 passes for 141 yards and four TDs. Josh Martin completed two passes for 67 yards.

Jonan Wookey finished with 16 tackles, 10 of those solo, to lead the stout defense. Jacob

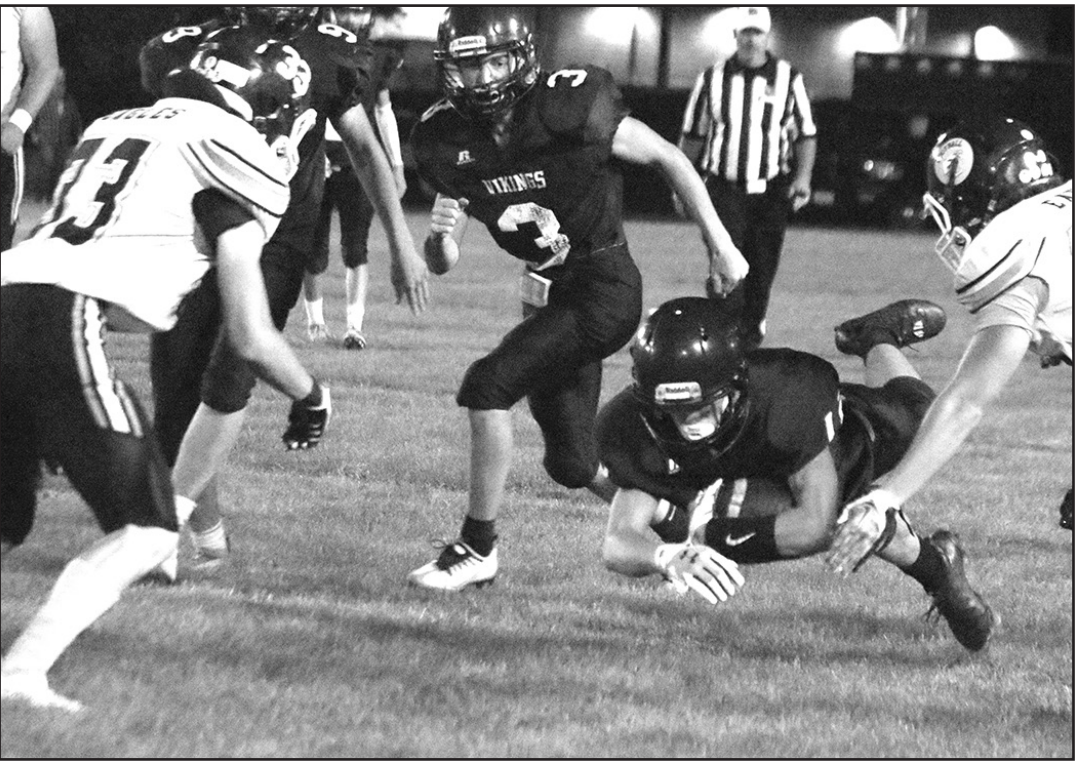

Martin added 15 tackles, a dozen of those solo, and 7.5 of those for loss, and recorded a sack.

Jacob Martin had six kickoffs for 198 yards and punted just once for 32 yards.

Stanton stats: Rushing: Grebin 10/6 yards; Jacob Martin 4/14 yards; Josh Martin 6/40 yards. Receiving: Kywin Tibben 6/67 yards, one TD; Jacob Martin 1/5 yards; Josh Martin 6/78 yards, two TDs; Ford 3/31 yards; Wookey 1/15 yards, one TD; Preston Carpenter 1/12 yards. Tackles: Tibben seven; Grebin 1.5; Joshua Martin seven; Simon Showalter 5.5; Brody Gibbs three; Ford 4.5; Carpenter one; Qwintyn Vanatta one; Kooper Nelson 2.5.

Stanton-Essex (2-1) hosts Griswold (0-3) in Essex on Friday, Sept. 16, as Essex celebrates homecoming. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

“Griswold’s defensive front is big and strong and will create some challenges for us,” Grebin said. “Hopefully the quick feet we have will have the same success they did in a JV game here a couple of years ago vs. Griswold.”

around to our playmakers. Most of these guys have played together for many years, so they have great chemistry. We were pretty one dimensional last year, which allowed teams to load the box. With spreading the ball around on offense, it has opened up the box some and Riley [Fouts] has been able to make great use of his carries.”

The offense combined seven players to total 347 offensive yards. Roeder finished with nine completed passes for 125 yards and two touchdowns, against one interception.

Red Oak stats: Rushing: Roeder 10/31 yards; Couse 1/5 yards; Fouts 26/181 yards, two TDs; Adam Baier 1/6 yards. Receiving: Couse 2/26 yards; Baier 2/4 yards; Bond 1/29 yards, one TD; Jack Kling 1/7 yards; Woods 3/59 yards, one TD. Tackles: Fouts one; Baier nine; Bond seven; Brandon Hernandez 5.5; Kling six; Woods five; Johnson one; Jack Schmadeke 4.5; Dante Baucom 2.5; Jacob Eggers 5; Tyler Rinaburger two; Logan Conn one; Bryton Bergren 1.5.

Bond had four kickoffs for a combined 140 yards and went 4/4 PATs Woods had three punts for a combined 108 yards.

The Tiger defense allowed just one first down during the game.

The Tigers open district action Friday, Sept. 16, as they host rival Shenandoah on homecoming.

“Homecoming week can always turn into a distraction, but I feel confident that this group of guys will have their fun, but know when to lock in and prepare all week to compete under the Friday night lights,” Nordeen said. “The biggest thing is we are finally coming back home after being on the road for two weeks.”

Red Oak now has a trophy for the Red Oak/Shenandoah game (pictured at right), and the game will be called The Battle on the Nish. Winner of the contest will keep the traveling trophy for the upcoming year.

Friday’s game will kick off at 7 p.m.

The homecoming activities at the field begin at 6 p.m. and include the King and Queen ceremony and the induction of Lori Larson into the Red Oak High School Hall of Fame.

Larson is a 2001 Red Oak graduate. She participated on the 2000 and 2001 state qualifying volleyball teams and was a standout tennis participant from 1998-2001.

Larson currently lives in Kansas City with her husband Jordan, and two daughters Caroline and Layla.

Larson finished her high school tennis career with a 150-9 record (55-5 in singles, 95-4 in doubles); She is a two-time Hawkeye 10 Conference doubles champion, two-time doubles state champion, and one-time doubles state runner-up, among other honors.

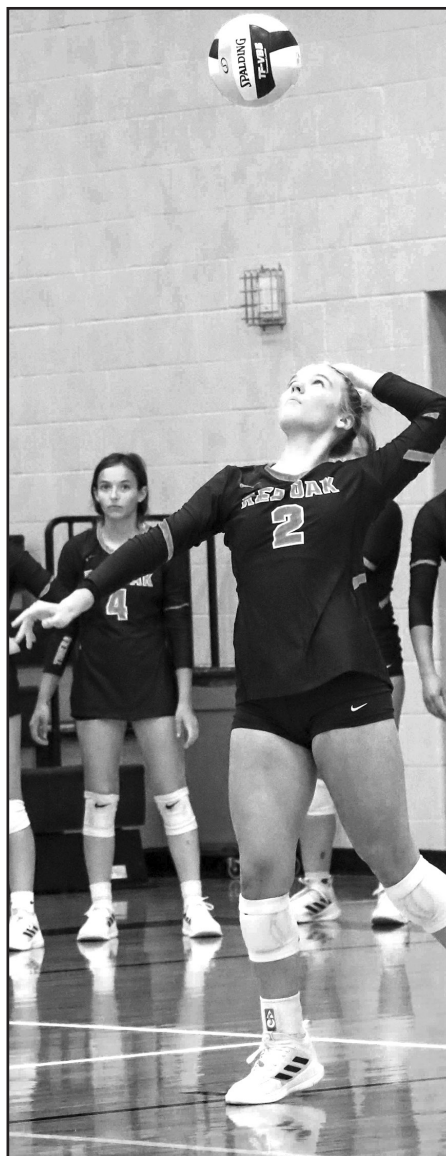

She was a member of the third-place 1998 state team; second-place 2000 team; and third place 2001 team.

Montgomery County Supervisor Steve Ratcliff played host to a "fowl" guest, specifically, a racing pigeon, which had gotten lost while flying. Ratcliff said he instantly knew the bird was not wild when he found it standing on the roof of his car in the garage, and when he went to pick it up, it only moved slightly. Ratcliff said he researched the information on the bird's tags online and found out what club it was with and contacted them. After allowing the pigeon to eat, drink, and rest, Ratcliff released it for its return trip.

Anxious Red Oak residents were praising the levee after the Red Oak River crested at 27.47 feet, according to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Without the levee, water would have flooded the west end of Red Oak. Still, there was a lot of flood related damage to property and crops, estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars. Sandbagging was needed in the vicinity of the West Coolbaugh Street Bridge to prevent the levee from being overtopped.
