For the first time in 51 years, the Red Oak Tiger football team begins the season 4-0 after a 47-0 rout of rival Shenandoah in district play on Friday, Sept. 16, in a homecoming victory. The Tigers have yet to be scored on with their stout defense making a statement which includes limiting the opponents' offense to 522 yards combined.

"Our defense is just built different," Red Oak head football coach Michael Nordeen said. "We take a lot of chances and use our speed to fly around. The shutouts have continued to increase their confidence and drive them to new heights."

A sea of orange filled the bleachers as the Tigers got to work.

"It was a wonderful homecoming under the Friday night lights," Nordeen said. "The crowd was huge and loud; it was one of the best atmospheres I have ever seen on a Friday night."

The Tigers got off to a shaky start with a fumble, but two plays later Tiger Jack Kling intercepted a Mustang pass and the Tigers regained possession of the ball. A Landon Couse TD run was called back, but the Tigers capitalized with a Dawson Bond two-yard TD run.

Red Oak led 6-0 after the first quarter, and took a 30-6 lead into the break, gaining three rushing TDs by Riley Fouts and one receiving TD from Bond. Fouts added a pick six in the third quarter and another rushing TD in the fourth while the Tiger defense held the Mustangs to just 85 total yards for the final score.

"We preach a short memory, next play and our guys preach that to each other also," Nordeen said of the abundance of penalties. "We do many things as a program to build positive characteristics in our players and staff. If you can trust your brother on the field and believe in what we are aiming to accomplish, it makes it easier to forget that last play and move on."

Tuesday, Sept. 13, Southwest Valley volleyball defeated Nodaway Valley 3-0 in the first conference match of the season.

“Our serving was huge tonight,” Southwest Valley head volleyball coach Lisa Sparks said. “Defensively we were scrappy and were able to get on the floor and keep the ball alive. “Our defense helped us to our win as well,” Sparks said. “Haidyn Top was the leader for defense as she led the team with 18 digs.

“We started off the night with great energy and focus, but we lost that energy and allowed them to come back. I was pleased with the way we finished the night with the same focus and energy as the first two sets.”

SWV: Top one assist, 18 digs, three aces; Haer one assist, six kills, one block, six digs, one ace; Kyra Simmons one ace; Lillie seven kills, two blocks, nine digs; Larsen 10 kills, eight digs, one ace; Mullen 28 assists, two kills, nine digs, three aces; Dalton 13 kills, one block, nine digs, one ace; Schlapia two assists, one kill, two blocks.

Season: 15-14-1

Nick says:
After lengthy negotiations, Scoop has agreed to assist in picks once per week for a boatload of treats. However, this week is not that week, so I'm once again picking solo. I'm not sure how last week went so I'll knock off this list and then go be surprised. Three is my lucky number, so I'm expecting to get them all completely right.

Pittsburgh/Cleveland: I'm thinking Steelers.

Houston/Chicago: Fingers crossed for Da Bears, Ma.

Las Vegas/Tennessee: Go Titans.

Kansas City/Indianapolis: Hmm, I like both. Chiefs for the win.

Buffalo/Miami: Dolphins swim to a victory.

Detroit/Minnesota: Fingers crossed for the Lions.

Baltimore/New England: Ravens.

Cincinnati/N.Y. Jets: Bengals, naturally.

Philadelphia/Washington: Eagles victory.

New Orleans/Carolina: Panthers, of course.

Jacksonville/L.A. Chargers: Fingers crossed for the Jaguars.

L.A. Rams/Arizona: Rooting for the Rams with Charm.

Atlanta/Seattle: Seahawks victory.

Green Bay/Tampa Bay: I'll root for the Packers with Trish.

San Francisco/Denver: I guess the 49ers?

Dallas/N.Y. Giants: Why not the Cowboys?

A few observations from the weekly games:

- The Rams looked great the first half, then tried to give the game away in the second half. I just hope the boys take a look at Red Oak's highlights and maybe they can learn a thing or two on defense!
- Jimmy G just plays better as a backup QB. I am sorry Trey Lance got hurt, but Jimmy seemed to step into the position just fine and the Niners got a win.
- Miami's comeback. HOLY BUCKAROLIES! Tua also tied the record for most TD passes in a game in franchise history; on the board with Dan Marino and Bob Griese. Not bad company.
- And finally, Kyler Murray's run. Arizona went for a two-point conversion and Murray ran 84.8 yards in just under 21 seconds. What. A. Scramble! Horns up, Ramilly!!

Queens down Tigers in straight sets

Stanton climbed to 11-4 overall, 2-1 in the Corner Conference with a 3-0 win over Griswold on Tuesday, Sept. 13, with set scores of 25-12, 25-19, 25-22.

“The team did a nice job from the serve line in our match against Griswold,” Stanton head volleyball coach Jody Druivenga said. “We are always trying to have a purpose with our serves, and we felt that the girls are really buying into that. Although we had 10 serve errors for the match, we did have seven ace serves, so we will take the errors, as long as we are serving to score.”

The Viqueens began set one with an 11-1 run behind the serving of Lauren Johnson and Brooklyn Silva and never looked back. Set two was a bit closer, with the teams trading scores up to 20, but Stanton senior Abby Burke finished the set serving up five straight points to win.

In the third set, it appeared the Tigers were not ready to call it a match, as the teams battled back and forth with eight lead changes and six ties, but once again, the Queens finished it off on back to back points behind L. Johnson's serving.

“Marleigh Johnson had an especially stellar night for us, as she had 11 kills and was 100% efficient from the serve line, had two solo blocks, and seven digs,” Druivenga said. “She is a six-rotation player and really does a great job on the court. We had multiple players record kills for the evening, and our setters continue to really do a great job with ball placement. Griswold is a scrappy team, and they challenged us in all three sets. We were happy with the girls' response to the challenge.”

Stanton: Silva five assists, three kills, one block, five digs, three aces; Kyla Hart nine assists, four digs; Leah Sandin one assist, 12 digs; Burke one assist, one kill, one dig, one ace; L. Johnson six kills, 11 digs, three aces; April Vanderholm two assists, two kills, three digs; Jenna Stephens five kills, five digs; Elly McDonald eight assists, two kills, seven digs.

Griswold: No stats recorded.

The Viqueens will be in action on Saturday, Sept. 24, in Bedford as the Bulldogs host a tournament beginning at 9 a.m.

Griswold (12-10, 1-1) and Stanton will both begin the Corner Conference volleyball tournament on Monday, Sept. 26, with a location yet to be determined.

Griswold's Emma Mundorf (No. 16) leaps for the tip as Stanton's Jenna Stephens (No. 12) jumps to block. Stanton's Elly McDonald (No. 15) and Brooklyn Silva (No. 2) stay in position in case the tip heads another direction. (Charm Carpenter/The Red Oak Express)

The Stanton-Essex Vikings enjoyed a homecoming win on Friday, Sept. 16, in Essex as they defeated Griswold 54-6 in Class 8-man district 9 action. “The game was not played as sharp as we’d have liked it to be,” Stanton-Essex head football coach Jeff Grebin said. “Griswold’s defensive front caused some problems.”

The Vikings led 14-0 at the end of the first quarter and took a 34-0 lead into halftime. Stanton-Essex scored on the second play of the third quarter and continuous clock began. Griswold scored in the final minutes of the game on a five-yard run by Peyton Cook, who finished with 28 yards on the ground and 20 yards in the air.

YMCA SEEKING COACHES

Volunteer coaches are needed for the 2022-23 basketball season at the Montgomery County Family YMCA. Here is your opportunity to have tons of fun and help youth learn the basics of basketball.

If you have never coached a youth sport program before and/or do not have an in-depth knowledge of basketball, we will train you.

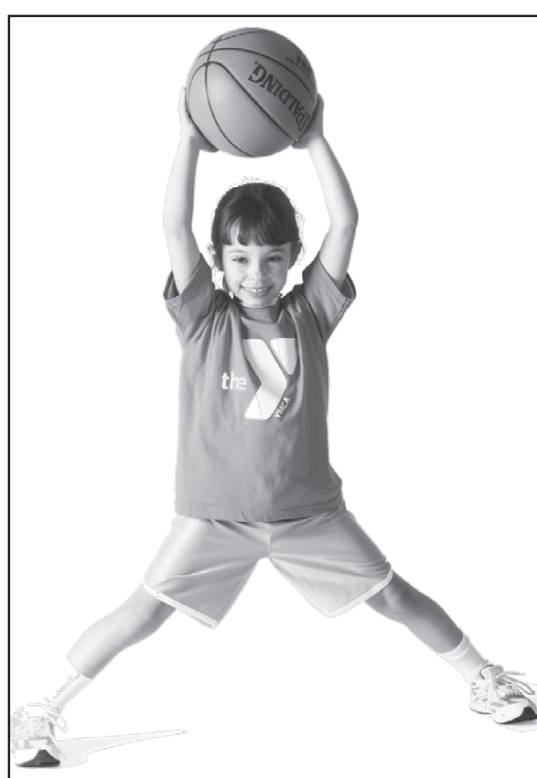

All volunteer coaches will attend a pre-coaching clinic to get prepared to coach and will be assisted with game scheduling. All volunteers must pass a background check and take a YMCA child safety video course.

Volunteer Coaches are needed for 1st - 6th grade girls and boys basketball.

A season typically runs from the beginning of November until the end of January. Coaches can set their own practice times and days, typically at least one practice a week for one hour.

Games will be held on weekday evenings and/or weekends. It's fun coaching! So why not try it out?

Please contact Chris Allison for more information at 712-623-2161 or email at callison@mcymca.com.

BUSINESSES OF THE QUARTER

The Montgomery County Family YMCA would like to honor the Round Table companies: Houghton State Bank, Red Oak Subway, Red Oak Chrysler, Alley Poyner Macchietto Architecture, David Carbaugh's State Farm, and Tech Support Services as our Businesses of the Quarter for the next two quarters from April to September.

All employees of the Round Table companies and their immediate families will receive a free membership to the Y* until September. So, stop by if this means you! *Does not apply to current members.

The Round Table recognizes those who support the goals and objectives of the Montgomery County Family YMCA through donations in three different categories: Gold ($1,500), Silver ($1,000), and Bronze ($500).

The Round Table Program gives the YMCA the ability to pursue the YMCA's three areas of focus, which are Youth Development, Healthy Living, and Social Responsibility by partnering with businesses throughout the community. The program gives businesses the opportunity to make an annual one-time contribution to the YMCA which will be put toward the annual campaign, endowment, or specific programs the business might choose to support.

Want to know how to become a Round Table participant? Simply contact Executive Director Carrie Shalters by email at cshalters@mcymca.com or by phone at 721-623-2161 for more information.
