Stanton basketball stand out Jenna Stephens signed her letter of intent to play basketball at Central College.

"I wasn't sure I wanted to play at the next level," Stephens said. "But once coaches started contacting me, I knew I was not ready to give that up."

Stephens said her love of the game was developed early on thanks to her mom and aunt, and she has practiced with varsity players since sixth grade.

"I want to thank Mom and my aunt for starting me on my way and giving me the love of the game," Stephens said. "Also Matt Urban and John Mainquist for helping to develop my skills, and Dave Snyder for pushing me since sixth grade to reach my potential.

"I am so appreciative of my teammates and the whole town for always showing up."

Stephens is ready to get this season going, and hopes to work on ball handling skills as well as becoming a more accurate outside shooter and stronger in the paint.

"I know I am not at my full potential yet," Stephens said. "I am looking forward to progress to the next level."

Stephens plans to major in kinesiology and wants to become a physical therapist.

The Red Oak boys basketball teams hosted the Stanton boys teams in a fundraising scrimmage on Saturday, Nov. 19, after a spaghetti feed from which all proceeds went to the family of Todd Gilleland. The spaghetti feed was hosted by the Montgomery County Family YMCA, as Gilleland was the facilities manager at the YMCA for years.

Caleb Gettler of Stanton won the three-point contest, sinking a trey on his first shot. For more photos from the scrimmage, turn to page 2B.

Nick's Picks VS. Charm's Credence

Record: 842-652-6
Season: 95-67-1

Record: 926-568-6
Season: 88-74-1

Nick says:

Alright, Scoop is bribed, sheets have been marked, and we're ready to do this. I'm guessing we're past the halfway point now, which means that there's only a certain number of weeks left until I can put all this behind me. Somehow, I'm still not in last place, but there's still plenty of time.

Buffalo/Detroit: Scoop has chosen the Lions.

N.Y. Giants/Dallas: A paw and a meow for the Giants.

New England/Minnesota: Vikings, Scoop meows.

Tampa Bay/Cleveland: Scoop has chosen the Buccaneers.

Cincinnati/Tennessee: A bit of a clawing match. I'm taking the Titans over Scoop's Bengals pick. Now she's grumpy.

Houston/Miami: Dolphins.

Chicago/N.Y. Jets: For you, ma. Da Bears. (Also because Scoop agrees.)

Atlanta/Washington: Falcons are Scoop's pick.

Denver/Carolina: Scoop roots for the Panthers.

Baltimore/Jacksonville: Ravens, according to Scoop.

L.A. Chargers/Arizona: Scoop believes in the Chargers.

Las Vegas/Seattle: Scoop has pawed the Seahawks.

L.A. Rams/Kansas City: Chiefs are the pick.

New Orleans/San Francisco: Rooting for the Saints.

Green Bay/Philadelphia: The Eagles.

Pittsburgh/Indianapolis: Why not the Colts?

Charm says:

So the football season is over for me. I have decided this is the year I need to set better priorities. So, the family did not watch any football this weekend.

Stafford is in concussion protocol again. I believe that is strike two ... let's go Perkins! I mean, yes we were in the lead before Stafford was injured, and some may say Perkins is not good enough or strong enough to be the starter. For those who do not know, Perkins is the third-string QB. The Wolf is the backup, but he was injured in the week 10 loss to Arizona, giving Perkins his time to shine. That being said, time to make a change anyway. Maybe if Perkins plays for the next few weeks and does some amazing things (Like actually scramble and throw a completion) then he will gain the confidence he is lacking and BAM! The Rams go undefeated the rest of the season! (Or I hit the road and become a stand-up comedian ...).

Predictions in bold:

Buffalo @ Detroit
NY Giants @ Dallas
New England @ Minnesota
Tampa Bay @ Cleveland
Cincinnati @ Tennessee
Houston @ Miami
Chicago @ NY Jets
Atlanta @ Washington
Denver @ Carolina
Baltimore @ Jacksonville
Chargers @ Arizona
Las Vegas @ Seattle
LA Rams @ KC
New Orleans @ SF
Green Bay @ Philadelphia
Pitts @ Indy

Kansas City had yet another come-back win; I don't know about other fans, but my dad is sure aging this season! He said he was thankful no one was at the house Sunday night because he may have done some yelling. (Hmmmm. See folks ... my dad modeled the behavior, hence I am the way I am!)

My man Bobby Trees is having a good season with the Titans! So far he has 30 receptions for 335 yards and one TD. He has become one of the only Rams I have continued to follow after he deserted my team.

Back to the boys. This is the first time since McVay took over as head coach of the Rams that they have lost four in a row. It also should be noted that Cooper Kupp is out (and will miss six to eight weeks). I would like to continue to dream about Perkins having a "Cinderella" season, but with Kupp out of contention, I honestly don't see it happening.

But as long as I continue to choose the Rams' opponents, I will continue to inch closer to Nick in the office standings!

Horns up, Ramily!

ROJH BBB gets season underway

The Red Oak Express

The Red Oak Junior High boys basketball season is underway and the boys are already starting to execute plays learned in practice.

Tuesday, Nov. 15, the teams hosted Clarinda, dropping three of the four games.

In the seventh grade A game, Red Oak fell 50-22.

"This was a very good seventh grade team for Clarinda," Red Oak Junior High head boys basketball coach Tristin Johnson said. "They had eight guys who could run the floor and played very tight man-to-man defense. For the first seventh grade game, these boys played well, but saw some things we need to work on and improve."

Hudson Fisher finished with 10 points, while AJ Beeson added eight points.

The seventh grade B team fell 15-4.

"We worked hard in this game and played well, but have some things to work on," Johnson said. "We will continue to improve and get better each game."

Casey Johnson had two points and Davis Mayberry added the other two points for the Tigers.

The eighth grade A team defeated Clarinda 40-25.

"We struggled to make some shots early on, but we rebounded and worked hard on defense," Johnson said. "I was very pleased with how well they played man-to-man defense as it has been a focus this year, and they were in the right positions most of the night and played well."

Reese Montgomery led the team with 15 points, followed by Carson Roeder with 12 points.

The eighth grade B team fell 12-6.

"We worked hard and played pretty good man-to-man defense," Johnson said. "We are still working on making sure we are in help when away from the ball. Overall, I was happy to see it go well. We will work on some offense and make sure we attack a little more and have better movement."

Carson Davids had two points and Pace Challie had four points.

Atlantic

The Junior High boys basketball teams hosted Atlantic on Thursday, Nov. 17, winning three of the four games.

The seventh grade A Tiger team defeated Atlantic 48-23.

"This was a well-played game for the seventh grade boys," Johnson said. "The started out shooting well and played good man-to-man defense. Still some work to do on positioning on offense and defense, but looked much better."

Beeson finished with 23 points; Hietbrink 12; and Seth Lydon eight.

Seventh grade B Tigers defeated Atlantic 5-3.

"The boys are working hard at learning some new things and getting better at working it into the games," Johnson said. "They continue to get better each day."

Mayberry and Wyatt Ogden collected two points each; Johnson added the other point.

In eighth grade action, the Tiger A team won a nail-biter 41-39. The Tigers held a nice lead early, but Atlantic rallied back and took the lead before the halftime. Red Oak came back for the win.

"We still are having some troubles finishing on some shots," Johnson said. "We do a pretty good job of getting to the rim and getting good shots, but the shots are just not falling in right now. With that being said, we do a good job rebounding and getting points when we can."

Montgomery finished with 17 points, Roeder 15, and Dillan Rydberg five.

The eighth grade B team came up just short, falling to the Trojans 11-9.

"We did a good job playing man-to-man and having help defense, but struggle with some passing and seeing the open guy tonight," Johnson said. "Defense has been our focus, so it is nice to see them working hard with it and getting in the right positions.

"Brayton Adams had a good game working in some back door cuts and getting open; we just struggled getting him the ball. We did make some shots today with Carson Davids hitting a three and Zylar Lamb hitting a three."

Creston

The JH Tigers traveled to Creston on Friday, Nov. 18, finishing the day 0-4.

Seventh grade A team fell 44-30 in a tough loss.

"These guys continue to get better, but struggled to get going early," Johnson said.

Beeson scored a dozen points; Fisher six points; Lydon and Hietbrink five points each.

Seventh grade B team fell by just one point, 16-15, in a seesaw battle.

"This was a tough battle; we just couldn't get that last score," Johnson said. "It was a good fight for the boys and they have definitely improved a lot."

Ogden finished with seven points; Johnson four points; Will Pollock two points.

In eighth grade action, the A team fell 55-34.

"We started out well and played pretty tough," Johnson said. "We are learning to drive the ball better and get to the rim; we just haven't been able to finish it when we get there and are struggling to get the calls when we do get there. We keep working at it, and we are learning to go through the contact rather than fade away from it. It will help us down the road."

Couse finished with 13 points; Montgomery 12 points; Roeder seven points.

Eighth grade B team fell 26-19.

"We play at a high tempo which is nice to see us push the ball up the court. We've got to work at being under control a little more," Johnson said. "We have been seeing back door cuts a little more, but we have to see it when the guy does get open, rather than seeing it late and missing out on the opportunity. We continue to get better and will see the reward in the future from it."

Osiel Petersen finished with six points; Davids five points; and Sergio Villanueva four points.

The Tigers take a break for Thanksgiving and return to the court on Tuesday, Nov. 29, as they travel to Glenwood. The games begin at 4:15 p.m.

Red Oak seventh grade boys hustle down the court for defense in the win over Atlantic on Thursday, Nov. 17. Above from left: Dalton Ferree (No. 12), Seth Lydon (No. 14), AJ Beeson (No. 24), and Hudson Fisher (No. 5). (Charm Carpenter/The Red Oak Express)

Across the entire Red Oak Community School District, food drives were in full swing, reflecting the spirit of Thanksgiving. Inman Primary and Washington Intermediate wrapped up their food drives with a Thanksgiving celebration, wearing festive hats and celebrating the history of Thanksgiving. Miscellaneous

Card of Thanks

THANK YOU ... to the people that helped. The 12+ farmers with big rigs ... tractors & discs came to the rescue. As well as the Red Oak Fire Department & surrounding community fire departments ... with many volunteers. Not only saving acres of crops, but the many houses in the path of the north-moving fire. All saved. Your hard work made a difference.
Special Thanks to Family - Dan & Jeff. Always there for me.
Thanks so much.
Glora J. Jensen
